Vanish by Tom Pawlik - Goodreads

Pawlik's skill shines in how he introduces faith and God later in the book. I will not go there though, because it would take from the novel way he orchestrates the books ending. I didn't rate the book a five star because I felt the ending could have been tweaked—less is more.

There are also moments of thrilling suspense. Furthermore, there were some disappointments along the way. At first, the book seemed totally captivating and drew me in from the start.
